

The Literary Society is delighted to present
Lord Dobbs
speaking about his famous trilogy
The House of Cards

Tuesday 30 June 2026

6.30pm, for 7.30pm

Members & Guests ~ £100

“Writing political fiction is simple ~ I take reality, then water it down to make it credible.”

Over a delicious dinner, Lord Dobbs will speak to Members and their guests on the art of writing political novels. Lord Dobbs’ first novel, House of Cards, was turned into global TV hits by both the BBC and Netflix, winning him five Emmie nominations. Netflix has recently announced it is transforming his latest novel, The Lords’ Day, into another major TV series for release in early 2027.

There will be an opportunity to buy a copy of the book from the author over a Champagne drinks reception before the dinner.
